

The image shows a sophisticated interior design. The walls are covered in light-colored wallpaper with a repeating pattern of blue and green irises. A classic-style lamp with a white shade and a brass-colored base is mounted on the wall. The room features ornate, light-colored woodwork, including a decorative crown molding at the top and a large, detailed carved panel on the lower wall. To the right, a window with white frames and sheer curtains allows natural light into the space.
